

Seeking mission-minded retired Christian couple

You are invited to apply for a joint position at Mount Joy College with a mandate to teach good counselling skills throughout the world. The responsibilities include buildings and grounds maintenance, housekeeping, cooking, and promotions. We will teach you counselling skills if you are interested. We offer rent free accommodation in a modern house with a fantastic view of ocean and mountains. There is the option of one halftime salary. By God's grace, we have taught counselling in 30+ countries. If you like to travel, you can become a member of the teaching team. For more information see www.mtjoycollege.com. Please contact us at admin@mtjoycollege.com for an application form.